

KINGS COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY
CHARLES J. HYNES PRESENTS:
THE STUYVESANT HIGH SCHOOL
SCREENING OF THE DOCUMENTARY FILM:

SLAVERY AND THE LAW

DATE: THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2012

PLACE: 6TH FLOOR LIBRARY

TIME: 3:30 – 5:30PM

Synopsis: SLAVERY AND THE LAW documents the creation of a mural by Brooklyn teenagers, interweaving their journey of discovery through art with an examination of the legal status of enslaved Africans in Colonial America up until the American Civil Rights Movement. The film chronicles struggles to transform the law and create a more just society.

You Are Invited To Attend This Screening
Followed By A Panel Discussion
(Please RSVP as Seating is Very Limited!)

Director: Paula Heredia

Producer: Larry Garvin

Executive Producers:
Charles J. Hynes
Joan B. Gabbidon

*brought to you by
The Kings County District Attorney's Office Juvenile Crimes Bureau
Senior Deputy District Attorney Joan B. Gabbidon
Executive Assistant District Attorney Deborah Lashley*

Funded By A Grant From The Kellogg Foundation